

THE OLD LIBRARY

Weddings

Your wedding at THE OLD LIBRARY

Welcome to your guide to weddings at The Old Library. This stunning Grade II listed library first opened its doors in 1905 - serving its community through the magic of stories. More than 100 years later, it is open again and ready to create more stories, more magic and more happy ever after's.

The Reading Room

The opulent, beating heart of The Library. The Reading Room is a flexible space that doubles as our Ceremony and Reception room. Whether you are looking to create a classy formal reception - or a more rustic communal feel; we will work with you every step of the way to achieve your fairytale wedding day.

The Atrium & Foyer

Flooded with natural light, The Atrium and Foyer provide the perfect back drop for your guests to mingle, chat and have a tasty canape - before and after the official ceremony. Leaving you to be whisked off for photos around our stunning venue - or in the nearby surroundings of the Victorian Grade II listed Newsham Park - knowing they're in safe hands.
